

1 Position of adjectives

Complete the sentences.

- The book is brilliant.
It's a brilliant book.
- My hair is short.
I've got .....
- That man is tall.
He's a .....
- The dog isn't very friendly.
It isn't a .....
- Their eyes are brown.
They've got .....
- My surfboard is new.
It's a .....
- These animals are dangerous.
They're .....
- Lucy's hair is long and curly.
She's got .....

2 has/hasn't got

Look at the information and complete the sentences about Steve with has got or hasn't got.

Steve
Eyes:	blue
Hair:	short, straight, black
Brothers:	0
Sisters:	2 (Elizabeth and Jane)
Pets:	0
Personality:	kind, friendly

- He 's got a friendly personality.
- He ..... brown eyes.
- He ..... a sister called Elizabeth.
- He ..... long hair.
- He ..... a dog.
- He ..... dark hair.
- He ..... straight hair.
- He ..... any brothers.

3 have/has got: questions and short answers

Make questions with have got and complete the answers.

- you / a mobile ?
A: Have you got a mobile?
B: No, I haven't.
- she / a cold ?
A: .....
B: Yes, .....
- Richard / a bike ?
A: .....
B: No, .....
- you and Helen / any videos ?
A: .....
B: Yes, .....
- your parents / a big car ?
A: .....
B: No, .....
- horses / long legs ?
A: .....
B: Yes, .....

4 have/has got: affirmative, negative and questions

Find a mistake in each sentence. Underline the mistakes and correct them.

- I'm got small eyes and a long nose. I've
- Linda got a bad headache. ....
- Harry's parents has got an old computer. ....
- Are you got a new watch? .....
- Maria has got a cat but she not has got a dog. ....
- Is Rebecca's boyfriend got dark hair? .....
- The children isn't got any sandwiches. ....
- Has Carl and Paul got any computer games? .....